

TIMES NEWSPAPER HEADLINES:

The overall report about covid 19 in the last two weeks , the effects and the possible solutions .

The comments come from the former president of the royal college of GPS who insists the vaccines is safe and warns the world could suffer unless EU gets a grip. The daily monitor just surveys the result of the vaccination in the UK concludes it so well in Uganda.

The newspaper says that in a rare move, the European commissions rebuked members states of America despite a looming third wave of Covid and some other diseases and in 2020 The times also carries a warning from one of the senior officers and his report.

THE OVERALL STATUS OF COVID 19.

In the editorial of all this information about covid 19, we got the women's well being and men's wellbeing all together and came up the basic statistics about the effects of covid 19 in Uganda for the year of 2019 and the year of 2021. This has left very many young people homeless and others without food and other resources one can need to live a normal life. This was due to the closure of businesses.

THE PERISHED FAMILY OF FIVE

It says that here has been an 86% fall in the deaths among the over - 80s when figures were figures from the first week of this month are compared with one another from January to December of the following year. The guardian believes that the pressure is growing so faster.